Pray for Peace and Protection of Members of Our Uniformed Services

Lord, bless the men and women of our military as they answer the call to serve our nation and defend our freedom. Protect them, particularly those in harm's way. Most of all let them know your love: that you are with them, and that you will never forsake or abandon them. We ask this in the precious name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Healing Prayer

LORD, You invite all who are burdened to come to You. Allow Your healing hand to heal me. Touch my soul with Your compassion for others. Touch my heart with Your courage and infinite love for all. Touch my mind with Your wisdom, that my mouth may always proclaim Your praise. Teach me to reach out to You in my need and help me to lead others to You by my example. Most loving Heart of Jesus, bring me health in body and spirit that I may serve You with all my strength. Touch gently this life which You have created, now and forever. Amen.

Thursday, June 6th after 9:30 a.m. Mass

Saint Charles Migrant Ministry activities will be gearing up in the coming months. We are planning weekly visits to various camps to provide masses as well as to find out what other needs exist that we can help with.

We welcome volunteers to assist us in this fulfilling ministry with many ways to serve including attending mass with us, to give support to the workers, and to assist with providing water, snacks or other goods collected at the camps.

We would be especially grateful to have any bilingual or Spanish speaking persons to assist us with getting to know the workers and learning ways that we can help meet their spiritual and corporal needs.

Please call, text or email Karey or Kevin Fallon at the following for more information and to volunteer. Karey Fallon 757-784-4928/Kevin Fallon 757-784-1965 or kandk9680@gmail.com

We are introducing an exciting program that gives you a new way to support our parish: “eGiving” through ParishSOFT. We are eager to add this as an additional mode of donation to our parish community.

The ParishSOFT program gives you:

- A convenient and consistent way to support St. Charles Borromeo by electing to use direct debit from your bank or credit card account.
- The opportunity to support our parish even if you are absent from Mass for travel or illness.
- A solution to a situation I know many families face on their way to Mass: where did I put my envelopes?!

With the support of the parish finance council, we have selected the ParishSOFT program for many reasons, including:

- Over the years, ParishSOFT has worked with hundreds of Catholic parishes throughout the United States and is recognized as the leading eGiving program.
- ParishSOFT provides the critical third party security needed for this new way of parish support: this limits the liability for our parish and keeps your information in secure hands.

How does it work?

- You can visit giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/stcharlescapecharles and enroll securely online or text “Give” to 757-432-2040
- You can elect to have your specified bank or credit card account debited on a specific day that works conveniently for your family.

A few other considerations:

- Many of you have requested we put this type of program in place.
- There is no charge to parishioners for enrolling. In fact, every family signing up with ParishSOFT means one less package of envelopes to print and mail out – and that will mean savings for St. Charles Borromeo, which we can use to further expand our ministries throughout our community.
- We consider ParishSOFT to be a “win-win” program for both parishioners and our parish. I strongly encourage you to enroll in this program today.

Parishioners will be receiving a letter with more details very soon. Please know if you are comfortable with your current mode of donations, there is nothing you need to do.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. J. Michael Breslin

Food for the Journey

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

As the story is told, two men were talking about why they go or do not go to church every weekend. One argued why he no longer comes to Mass: “I went every Sunday for almost thirty years and I can’t remember a single sermon from all those years that I sat in a pew.” The other thought about that and then replied, “You know, my wife and I have been married for more than twenty-five years. Just about every day during those years my wife and I sat down and shared a meal at least twice a day. Now I can’t say that I remember more than one or two of those meals, but if we hadn’t sat down to share those meals every day, I don’t think we would still be married today.”

Surely there are many reasons why Catholics come to the Eucharist each weekend. Some come for the homily, some for receiving holy Communion, others for the singing, and still others to be part of a faith community. For most, it is probably some of each. Yet behind all of it, though most might not think of saying so, is a commitment to be people of faith, to believe in the Lord Jesus, and to live as his disciples. It is the same commitment the Hebrews made in the desert in Exodus 24:3: “We will do everything that the LORD has told us.” Indeed, how long would we be believers and disciples of Jesus without being fed at his table? ●

Reflect

Why do you come to Mass each week?

[Jesus said,] “This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.”

MARK 14:24

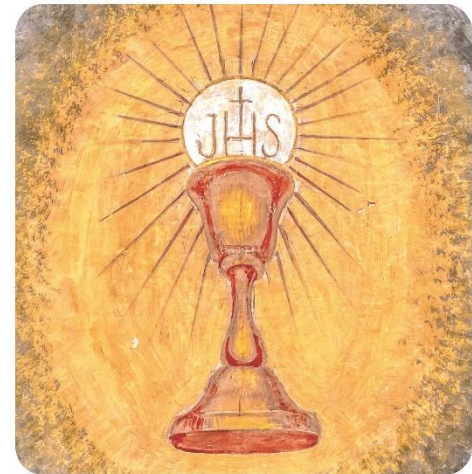

Dear Padre,

Do we need both bread and wine to receive Christ's Body and Blood? If I receive only the host—not the Precious Blood—am I participating fully in the Eucharist?

By only taking the host you are participating fully. And if you only drink from the chalice, you also are participating fully. Christ is always fully present in each form.

Many times, it is not possible to offer the chalice to a large congregation. There are also times when one cannot receive the host, especially a person who is very ill, and consuming the Precious Blood is easier.

In the Church's teaching on the Eucharist, we are invited to receive both. The Eucharisticum Mysterium (32) says it is especially fitting to receive Christ in both forms during the celebration of the Eucharist. This allows the Eucharist to appear more perfectly as a banquet, a feast that is a foretaste of the banquet that will be celebrated with Christ at the end of time when the kingdom of God is established in its fullness. In John 6, Jesus invites us to both eat and drink, so it is good to do both if you are able. If you aren't able, or if the chalice isn't offered at your church, you still participate fully by taking the host. Both forms are always present, because the priest must always receive both. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

As we are nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ... we receive his love within us, not to hold it back selfishly, but rather to share it with others. This logic is inscribed in the Eucharist: we receive his love within us and we share it with others. This is the eucharistic logic.
