Dear Parishioners:

Since the middle of January, you have been hearing from us about the 2025 Annual Diocesan Appeal: Sharing His Love with Others. I find this year's theme to be such a great reminder of what the Lord calls us to do.

Your continued generosity to the Appeal and your faith in our ministries are proof that by offering the Lord what we can, He will provide what we need. It is with this in mind that I hope each of you will prayerfully consider supporting the 2025 Annual Diocesan Appeal.

Your support of the Appeal provides for twenty-one distinct ministries such as the education of seminarians and priests who are dedicating their lives to serving Christ and his Church; assists college students to grow in their faith and relationship with the Lord; ensures that vital resources are made available for children and families facing homelessness and hunger, and so much more.

We are so blessed at Saint Charles because of the assistance of the Appeal. We have been able to support Northampton Social Ministries and the Migrant Farmworker Ministry of $10,000 annually.

I want you to know the real difference of what the Appeal is doing and the impact it's making in the lives of others. That is why I endorse the Appeal and why I hope you will as well.

In the middle of February, many of you received a letter from Bishop Knestout asking for your support of the 2025 Appeal. We hope you will prayerfully consider this request.

For those of you who did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, envelopes will be in each pew at Masses during the weekends of March 8th/9th and March 15th/16th.

On behalf of Bishop Knestout and Saint Charles, thank you in advance for your support of the 2025 Appeal.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. J. Michael Breslin

Dear Padre

March 9, 2025

Who decided that fish isn't meat? I really dislike fish; also, it bugs me when my friends eat lobster for dinner on Fridays in the name of "sacrifice."

Latin is the official language of the Catholic Church. Canon law, as written in Latin, states that we must abstain from carne (meat), a word that refers to warm-blooded animals that walk on the ground. By that definition, fish is allowed.

You make an excellent point about the lobster dinners and the nature of sacrifice. In the document "Questions and Answers About Lent and Lenten Practices," the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops states, "While fish, lobster, and other shellfish are not considered meat and can be consumed on days of abstinence, indulging in the lavish buffet at your favorite seafood place sort of misses the point. Abstaining from meat and other indulgences during Lent is a penitential practice. On the Fridays of Lent, we remember the sacrifice of Christ on Good Friday and unite ourselves with that sacrifice through abstinence and prayer."

As we enter Lent, we must remember that our acts of penance should be more than thinking about just giving something up, like meat. Our fasting isn't just an external discipline—sacrifice for the sake of checking a box. It's supposed to be a sacrifice that leads us closer to God. When we take that deeper step ourselves, then we can invite our friends to go deeper, too. ●

First Sunday of Lent (C)

Deuteronomy 26:4-10 / Romans 10:8-13 /
Luke 4:1-13

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

If I Were a Horse by Elizabeth Bridgman is a children's story about Jenny, who day-dreams about being a horse and then accepts her true reality, as she realizes no one will recognize her as a horse. In the end, she finds that she likes herself as she truly is.

The story may also be a metaphor for our human fantasy about sin, by which we try to redefine the world on our own terms, only to realize that life does not go so well when we do this. It is our stealing by which we pretend that something belongs to us rather than to another. It is our lying that attempts to redefine truth in terms of what we want life to be, rather than in what life really is. It is our addictions that redefine the source of meaning and life not as God, but as ourselves and our wants. Lent brings us face to face with who we are—which is not a horse (real or otherwise), but, by God's design, is a daughter or son of God.

The temptations Jesus experienced in the desert were temptations to define life on his own terms, just as we are often tempted to do. Yet, Jesus was the one who got it right. For him, stones were stones, not bread. Power and glory were God's, not his. He would not put God to the test, thinking he could manipulate God and get God to do what Jesus wanted. Jesus was the faithful one. ●
