Dear Parish Family,

Thank you does not begin to cover how grateful our family and I are for the love and support you have shown us. We are blessed by your visits, delicious food, lovely spiritual cards, beautiful flowers, a rosary and even repairs that were needed unexpectedly in our home.

Rip would be overwhelmed and grateful for your love, because he loved his church and church family so much. Jesus was truly present with us through each of you.

Father Michael, Deacon Don, the Choir, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Greeters and Ushers provided the most beautiful Funeral Mass to celebrate Rip's life, and the music was perfect.

Special thanks to the office staff for their perfect planning; the Parish Life Ministry for providing the perfect reception with the help of our Parish cooks, who are the best on the Eastern Shore.

The Parish Hall was adorned with beautiful flowers arranged by our flower arranger extraordinaire.

The Doughty Funeral Home and its staff are exceptional and extremely kind. And the Hospice Angels will never be forgotten.

I have not named names, other than clergy, because I do not want to leave anyone out, each of you know who you are, and my family and I will never forget your kindness and the blueberry almonds.

I love you all.

Your Sister in Christ,

Peggy Phillips

Spirited Life

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

We are in a time when many seem to live with deep anger, much of which may come from fear generated by a sense of loss of control over our lives. We struggle to control the economy, our borders, the spread of disease, the violence in our cities and on our roads. Places once deemed safe—our schools, stores, and churches—have been invaded by violence. Ironically, those who feel most threatened by violence tend to turn to violence as a solution.

Do the scripture readings on this feast of Pentecost offer any hint of light as to how we might move forward?

Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans contrasts living in the flesh with living in the spirit that has been given to us. To “live in the flesh” is Paul's code word for living by our baser instincts—lust for power, revenge, and pleasure; anger; greed—all of which focus on ourselves. By contrast, to live in the spirit is to respond not from our baser instincts but rather to choose a more noble path, to take the high road, to care for the common good. For Paul, living in the flesh is a dead end, unable to bring us to life now or in the hereafter. To live in the spirit is to live in God, already in this life. Thus, Paul cautions that we not “fall back into fear,” something that arises from our preoccupation with the flesh. ●

Reflect

What situations or “triggers” cause me to act out of my baser instincts?

Dear Padre,

My Catholic friend says she speaks in tongues and does not feel she needs an interpretation as she does so. She writes down the exchange as she listens to others. What does the Catholic Church say about speaking in tongues? How should I respond if she asks to pray for me in this way?

Good for your friend. A robust spiritual practice is a real grace from God. At the same time, it seems that a gentle reminder, albeit a respectful one, to your friend might include the wisdom of St. Paul. In 1 Corinthians, Paul cautions that the person who speaks in tongues must ask for interpretation of what is spoken so that it may be confirmed. There is real wisdom offered here. It is also helpful to remember that in the Christian understanding of supernatural gifts, such gifts are not intended solely for the individual person but always for the well-being of the community and the common good (1 Cor 12:7). Keeping this integrated and balanced understanding as an essential component of the manifestation of the charismatic gifts of the Holy Spirit will only lead to good and to a more powerful experience of God's grace and life. In the Christian life, it is never about just the individual, but always inclusive of the experience of our brothers and sisters in Christ. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

The Holy Spirit...makes believers attentive to the problems and events of their time.... We run the risk of making a museum piece out of faith....! [The Holy Spirit]...brings...the faith up to date: this is his job. [He] does not bind himself to passing epochs or trends, but brings into today the relevance of Jesus, risen and living.
